

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

File Number: LTB-L-084970-25

In the matter of: 4285 CARVER PL
Ottawa ON K1J1B5

Between: Multifaith Housing Initiative Landlord

And

Christine Samson Tenant

Multifaith Housing Initiative (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Christine Samson (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 6, 2026.

The Landlord's agent Sarah Lorenz and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,595.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $52.44. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,595.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to January 31, 2026, are $12,047.00.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. There is no last month's rent deposit.
9. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act.

10. The Tenant testified that she came to be in rent arrears because she was assigned to a new ODSP worker who is "giving her a hard time". I do not find this to be a credible explanation for the rent arrears. Per her own testimony and the Landlord's evidence regarding the rent arrears, the interruption in rent payments predated the change in ODSP worker. No documentary evidence was provided by the Tenant to support her position that the arrears accumulated based solely on an administrative issue regarding her benefits.
11. The Tenant did not identify any financial resources that she could access to address the arrears issue. It would be unfair to the Landlord in these circumstances to grant relief from eviction.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $12,233.00 if the payment is made on or before January 27, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after January 27, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before January 27, 2026.
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $10,952.64. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $52.44 per day for the use of the unit starting January 7, 2026, until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before January 27, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from January 28, 2026, at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before January 27, 2026, then starting January 28, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.

9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after January 28, 2026.
