Citation: Centennial Apartments v Murray, 2026 ONLTB 5016

Date: 2026-01-15

File Number: LTB-L-085987-25

In the matter of: 1012, 3355 PONYTRAIL DR
MISSISSAUGA ON L4X1V7

Between: Centennial Apartments Landlord

And

Jeremy Murray Tenant

Centennial Apartments (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Jeremy Murray (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 12, 2026.

The Landlord's representative Emily Barbati and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $2,032.47. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $66.82. This amount is calculated as follows: $2,032.47 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to January 31, 2026 are $25,420.45. The Tenant does not dispute the amount owing.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.

8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,982.91 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $50.94 is owing to the Tenant for the period from January 1, 2025 to January 12, 2026.
10. As discussed below, I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act.
11. The Tenant has lived in the rental unit since 2020.
12. The Tenant testified that the arrears were generated because he was waiting for investors to provide funding to his business and they backed out. He acknowledges he prioritized his son's tuition to a USA school in the amount of $24,000.00 rather than pay his own rent. I take this to mean the Tenant withheld rent because he was unwilling or unable to pay until he received the funding and chooses to put his other expenses over the Landlord's rent.
13. The Tenant advised that he has been out of work since November and provided no reasonable solution to his lack of employment other than hopeful ideas, such as working with his father if he cannot succeed at his own employment efforts. He hopes to be offered a job soon but that has not been offered one at this time. I find the insufficient guarantee of income or ability to pay the substantial arrears, unfair to the Landlord, who has received no meaningful rent payments since July of 2024. The tenancy in my view is not financially viable.
14. Based on the evidence before me, the very high arrears amount, the lack of any reasonable ability to afford this tenancy going forward, I find it would be unfair to the Landlord to delay or deny eviction.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $25,606.45 if the payment is made on or before January 26, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after January 26, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before January 26, 2026.

5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $22,341.97. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $66.82 per day for the use of the unit starting January 13, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before January 26, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from January 27, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before January 26, 2026, then starting January 27, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after January 27, 2026.
