

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Ridge v Van Thuyt, 2026 ONLTB 7348

Date: 2026-01-28

File Number: LTB-L-096236-25

In the matter of: 3, 33 Terrace Hill Street
Brantford ON N3R1E8

Between: Jennifer Ridge Landlord

And

Dalton Van Thuyt Tenant
1000223182 ON Inc

Jennifer Ridge (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict 1000223182 ON Inc (collectively the 'Tenant') because the Tenant has been persistently late in paying the Tenant's rent.

The Landlord also claimed compensation for each day the Tenant remained in the unit after the termination date.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 19, 2026. Only the Landlord attended the hearing.

As of 11:17 a.m., the Tenant was not present or represented at the hearing although properly served with notice of this hearing by the LTB. There was no record of a request to adjourn the hearing. As a result, the hearing proceeded with only the Landlord's evidence.

Determinations:

1. As explained below, the Landlord has proven on a balance of probabilities the grounds for termination of the tenancy. Therefore, the tenancy shall terminate in accordance with the order below.
2. The Tenant was in possession of the rental unit on the date the application was filed.
3. On November 8, 2025, the Landlord gave the Tenant an N8 notice of termination with a termination date of January 31, 2026 (the 'N8 Notice'). The N8 Notice alleges that the Tenant has failed to pay the rent when it was due and payable 15 times from January 2024 to November 2025.

Persistently Late

4. Based on the uncontested evidence of the Landlord, I find that the Tenant has persistently failed to pay the rent on the date it was due. The rent is due on the 1st day of each month. The details of the persistent late payments are as follows:
 - rent for January, June, July, September, October, November and December 2024 was paid late; and
 - rent for January, April, May, July, August, September, October and November 2025 was paid late.
5. The Landlord stated that rent for December 2025 was paid on time. However, the January 2026 rent remained unpaid.

Daily Compensation & Filing Fee

6. Based on the monthly rent, the daily compensation is $28.56. This amount is calculated as follows: $$868.76 \times 12$, divided by 365 days.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.

Relief from eviction / Section 83 of the Act

8. The Landlord requested termination of the tenancy and stated that she is a small landlord that is trying to put their child through university. As such, she relies on the timely payment of the rent to meet her financial obligations.
9. As the Tenant was not present to speak to their circumstances, the Landlord was asked if they were aware of any circumstances of the Tenant that would give rise to delaying or denying eviction. The Landlord stated that she was not aware of any such circumstances and stated that she believed that the Tenant intended to vacate the unit as the parties signed an N11 agreement to end the tenancy with an agreed upon termination date of February 1, 2026.
10. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act as it would be prejudicial to the Landlord. The Tenant has persistently failed to pay the rent when it is due and payable. The Tenant did not attend the hearing to dispute this or to request relief from eviction. As such, the Tenant shall have the standard 11 days to move out.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated. The Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before February 8, 2026.

2. If the unit is not vacated on or before February 8, 2026, then starting February 9, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
3. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after February 9, 2026.
4. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $28.56 per day for the use of the unit starting January 31, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
5. The Tenant shall also pay to the Landlord $186.00 for the cost of filing the application.
6. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing under paragraph 5 of this order, on or before February 8, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from February 9, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
