

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Spyropoulos v RIGELHOF, 2026 ONLTB 8362

Date: 2026-01-29

File Number: LTB-L-095768-25

In the matter of: 462 NEWBURY ST
WINDSOR ON N9A6A2

Between: Kimberly Spyropoulos Landlords
John Spyropoulos

And

NEIL RIGELHOF Tenant

Kimberly Spyropoulos and John Spyropoulos (the 'Landlords') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict NEIL RIGELHOF (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 21, 2026.

The Landlords' Legal Representative, Ze Hao Liu and the Tenant attended the hearing. The Tenant spoke to Tenant Duty Counsel prior to the start of this proceeding.

Determinations:

Preliminary Issue: The Tenant cannot raise issues under Section 82 of the Act and did not provide timely disclosure

1. At the hearing the Tenant wished to raise issues pursuant to section 82 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'). To this end, the Tenant had not provided materials to the LTB or the Landlords/Landlords Legal Representative pursuant to the Rules
2. The Landlord's Representative objected to the Tenant being permitted to raise any issues under s. 82. The Landlord's Representative advised he did not get any materials from the Tenant and submitted it was only during the hearing he was aware that the Tenant wished to pursue these issues.
3. Section 82 provides a tenant may raise issues which may result in set-off against a Landlord's claims for arrears at an L1 hearing so long as the tenant provides written notice of these issues to the Landlord in advance of the hearing in accordance with the Board's rules or provide a satisfactory explanation why they could not do so.

4. Rule 19.4 of the LTB's Rules provides a tenant's written notice of their section 82 issues must be provided 7 days in advance of the hearing. Where this is not done, the LTB's Rule 19.5 provides a tenant shall not be permitted to raise their issues unless the LTB is satisfied the tenant could not comply with the requirements.
5. Similarly, Rule 19.1 of the LTB's Rules provides that all materials on which a party intends to rely at a hearing must be provided to the other party and the LTB 7 days in advance of the hearing. Rule 19.7 provides, in part, that a party who fails to comply with Rule 19 may not rely on evidence that was not properly disclosed unless ordered otherwise.
6. To comply with the section 82 and disclosure requirements the Tenant had to provide his list of section 82 issues and all materials on which they intended to rely to the Landlord on or before January 14, 2026. This was not done.
7. Absent a satisfactory explanation as to why the Tenant could not have done so, the Tenant is not able to raise his issues under s. 82. Additionally, unless ordered otherwise, the Tenant may not rely on their materials.
8. The Board's records show the Notice of Hearing – which advises parties of their disclosure obligations - and a copy of a s. 82 form was mailed to the Tenant on December 12 2025. Approximately 1 month prior to the hearing.
9. In the above circumstances I am not satisfied the Tenant could not have complied with the Rules. The Tenant had a period of at least 1 month to complete the s. 82 form and provide his materials to the Landlord and LTB. The s. 82 claims and disclosure were ultimately not completed prior to the hearing.
10. As a result, the Tenant was not permitted to raise any issues under s. 82 of the Act and may not rely on materials he may possess. The Tenant remains free to seek legal advice and/or pursue any timely issues that may form the subject of a tenants' application under the Act.

L1 Determination

11. The Landlords served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
12. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
13. The lawful rent is $1,600.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.

14. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $52.60. This amount is calculated as follows: $$1,600.00 \times 12$, divided by 365 days.
15. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
16. The rent arrears owing to January 31, 2026 are $7,100.00.
17. The Landlords incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
18. The Landlords collected a rent deposit of $1,600.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlords. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
19. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $44.79 is owing to the Tenant for the period from December 1, 2024 to January 21, 2026.
20. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until February 28, 2026, pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act. This extension of time accounts for both parties' evidence in relation to their financial circumstances and the Tenant's personal circumstances.
21. The Landlords' Legal Representative submitted that the parties had attempted to work out a payment plan to no avail, since the application was filed. The Tenant's evidence in relation to entering a payment plan illustrated that a payment plan would not be viable given the Tenant's current employment status, income sources and monthly expenses. The Tenants would have difficulty covering the monthly rent, his other expenses, let alone the arrears, given his income is less than the lawful rent of this rental unit.
22. The Tenant further testified that he required at least 30 days if an eviction were to be granted. The Landlords' Legal Representative submitted that the arrears are causing the Landlords financial difficulties, and that the Landlords rely on rent to pay expenses for the rental complex.
23. Considering all of the evidence and, notwithstanding the Landlords may face some financial prejudice, I find that, pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act that it would not be unfair to the Landlords to delay the eviction until February 28, 2026, due to the significant impact an early eviction would have on the Tenant.
24. Given the Tenant's personal circumstances and length of tenancy since 2024, I am satisfied that he may experience challenges securing housing that fits his needs such that more time is required. By contrast, the Landlords, while I acknowledge may face further financial prejudice, the Landlords are holding the last month's rent deposit and after considering the totality of the circumstances I conclude that delaying eviction to February 28, 2026, is fair and appropriate.

25. The extension of time will provide the Tenant time to secure his future income sources/funds or to find a new place to live.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlords and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlords or to the LTB in trust:
 - $7,286.00 if the payment is made on or before January 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
- OR
- $8,886.00 if the payment is made on or before February 28, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after February 28, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before February 28, 2026.
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlords $5,145.81. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlords owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlords compensation of $52.60 per day for the use of the unit starting January 22, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlords the full amount owing on or before February 28, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from March 1, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before February 28, 2026, then starting March 1, 2026, the Landlords may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlords on or after March 1, 2026.
