

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Top of the Valley Apartments v Sediqi, 2026 ONLTB 9842

Date: 2026-01-29

File Number: LTB-L-093588-25

In the matter of: 2211, 44 Valley Woods Road
Toronto ON M3A2R7

Between: Top of the Valley Apartments Landlord

and

Khalid Sediqi
Sude Kocacinar Tenants

Top of the Valley Apartments (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Khalid Sediqi and Sude Kocacinar (the 'Tenants') because the Tenants did not pay the rent that the Tenants owe.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 21, 2026.

The Landlord's Legal Representative, Sean Beard, and the Tenant, Khalid Sediqi ('KS'), attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenants with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenants did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenants were still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,826.94. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $60.06. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,826.94 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenants have paid $5,392.27 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. While KS initially disputed the amount of arrears the Landlord claimed is owing, after reviewing the Landlord's ledger, he confirmed that he was initially just confused by how the arrears were set out in the Landlord's application. The Landlord applied standard accounting principles in applying payments, which made it appear to the Tenant that he had paid less in October 2025 than he actually did. The Tenant declined the opportunity during the hearing to compare the payments listed in the Landlord's ledger with his own records.

7. As such, based on the uncontested evidence before the Board, I find that the rent arrears owing to January 31, 2026 are $352.55.
8. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
9. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,781.95 from the Tenants and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
10. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $2.15 is owing to the Tenants for the period from January 1, 2026 to January 21, 2026.
11. The Landlord is seeking a standard order as KS testified during the hearing that he can pay the full balance owing within 2 days. The Landlord's Legal Representative submitted that a standard order would provide the Tenant with more time than he is requesting to pay the full balance and continue the tenancy. KS was not opposed to a standard order.
12. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including that KS did not oppose a standard order nor did he seek any payment plan or delay, and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act. KS testified that he can pay the full balance owing in two days and intends to do so.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenants is terminated unless the Tenants voids this order.
2. The Tenants may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $538.55 if the payment is made on or before January 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $2,365.49 if the payment is made on or before February 9, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenants may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenants have paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after February 9, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenants may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenants do not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenants must move out of the rental unit on or before February 9, 2026.

5. As of the date of the hearing, the amount of the rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit exceeds the arrears of rent, compensation and the cost of filing the application the Landlord is entitled to by $1,811.23. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing. However, the Landlord is authorized to deduct from the amount owing to the Tenants $60.06 per day for compensation for the use of the unit starting January 22, 2026 until the date the Tenants moves out of the unit.
6. The Landlord or the Tenants shall pay to the other any sum of money that is owed as a result of this order.
7. If the unit is not vacated on or before February 9, 2026, then starting February 10, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
8. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after February 10, 2026.
