

Order under Section 69
Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

File Number: LTB-L-101732-25

In the matter of: 203, 661 HURON ST.
TORONTO ON M5R2R8

Between: Dash Property Management Inc. Landlord

And

Kara Penteluke Tenant

Dash Property Management Inc. (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Kara Penteluke (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on February 10, 2026.

Only the Landlord's agent, Mark Lefor, attended the hearing.

As of 9:52 a.m., the Tenant was not present or represented at the hearing although properly served with notice of this hearing by the LTB. There was no record of a request to adjourn the hearing. As a result, the hearing proceeded with only the Landlord's evidence.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,837.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $60.39. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,837.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to February 28, 2026, are $12,737.00.

7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord claimed NSF and administration fees, however these are not awarded because they arose from pre-authorized electronic payments and not cheques. Section 78(7) provides that the Board may award amounts in respect of NSF charges in respect of NSF cheques. While the Landlord submits that the term 'NSF cheque' is analogous to and includes other types of NSF payments, the Legislature has not made this clarification or amendment despite making other amendments of a clarifying nature. Therefore, in my view, there is insufficient information to support a finding that the Legislature intended an expansion of the chosen wording to include types of payments other than cheques.
9. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,800.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
10. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $39.15 is owing to the Tenant for the period from January 29, 2025, to February 10, 2026.
11. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act. The parties discussed possible payment plans and the Landlord offered alternate payment schedules, however the Tenant was unable to meet any attempted payment plans.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
 2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $12,923.00 if the payment is made on or before February 28, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
- OR
- $14,760.00 if the payment is made on or before March 1, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
 3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after March 1, 2026, but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.

4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before March 1, 2026.
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $9,850.75. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $60.39 per day for the use of the unit starting February 11, 2026, until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before March 1, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from March 2, 2026, at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before March 1, 2026, then starting March 2, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after March 2, 2026.
