

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Skyline Real Estate Holdings Inc., C/O Skyline Living v St James, 2026 ONLTB 18031

Date: 2026-02-27

File Number: LTB-L-089170-25

In the matter of: Unit 104, 250 QUEEN ST E
FERGUS ON N1M2Y6

Between: Skyline Real Estate Holdings Inc., C/O Landlord
Skyline Living

And

Caitlyn St James Tenant

Skyline Real Estate Holdings Inc., C/O Skyline Living (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Caitlyn St James (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 12, 2026.

The Landlord's Agent Trevor Scheib, the Tenant's Support Person, Amber Pukarowski and the Tenant attended the hearing. The Tenant declined to speak to Tenant Duty Counsel prior to the start of this proceeding.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $2,063.72. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $67.85. This amount is calculated as follows: $2,063.72 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $4,127.44 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to January 31, 2026 are $7,217.69.

7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $2,048.46 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $59.82 is owing to the Tenant for the period from November 1, 2024 to January 12, 2026.
10. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until April 30, 2026, pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act. This extension of time accounts for both parties' evidence in relation to their financial circumstances.
11. The Landlord's Agent submitted that the parties have attempted to work out a payment plan to no avail, since the application was filed. The Tenant's evidence in relation to entering a payment plan illustrated that a payment plan would not be viable given the Tenant's current life circumstances, employment status, health issues, income sources and monthly expenses. The Tenant would have difficulty covering the monthly rent, her other expenses, let alone the arrears.
12. The Tenant testified to the impact an eviction would have on her given her current personal life and financial circumstances, and that she has significant connection to her neighbours, and the community and thus the Tenant requested and extended eviction so that she could sort out her finances after the death of a family member who assisted her financially. The Tenant also testified to the financial challenges looking for a new home would bring and if evicted she would be rendered unhoused.
13. In response to questioning from the Board, the Landlord's Agent explained that any further delay in granting the application would be financial prejudicial to the Landlord, and that the Landlord relies on rent to pay expenses related to the rental unit, however the Landlord would allow an extended eviction to February 2026, given the recent conversations with a social provider regarding the Tenant's arrears.
14. Considering all of the evidence and, notwithstanding the Landlord may face some financial prejudice, I find that, pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act that it would not be unfair to the Landlord to delay the eviction until April 30, 2026, due to the significant impact an early eviction would have on the Tenant.
15. Given the Tenant's connection to the community, the tenure of tenancy (almost 3 years) and her personal circumstances, I am satisfied that she may experience challenges securing housing that fits her needs such that more time is required. By contrast, the Landlord, while I acknowledge may face further financial prejudice, the Landlord is holding the last month's rent deposit and after considering the totality of the circumstances I conclude that delaying eviction to April 30, 2026, is fair and appropriate.

16. The extension of time will provide the Tenant time to secure her future income sources/funds to pay the arrears or to find a new place to live for herself.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $9,467.41 if the payment is made on or before February 28, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

- $11,531.13 if the payment is made on or before March 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

- $13,594.85 if the payment is made on or before April 30, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after April 30, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
 4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before April 30, 2026.
 5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $4,045.89. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
 6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $67.85 per day for the use of the unit starting January 13, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
 7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before April 30, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from May 1, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
 8. If the unit is not vacated on or before April 30, 2026, then starting May 1, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
 9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after May 1, 2026.
