And

Mehdi Taoudi

Tenant

Budi Bharoto Dwimeijanto, Nurhajati Dharmawardhani and Chalista Nabila Rifki Andadari (the 'Landlords') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Mehdi Taoudi (the 'Tenant') because:

- the Tenant has been persistently late in paying the Tenant's rent.

The Landlord also claimed compensation for each day the Tenant remained in the unit after the termination date.

This application was heard by videoconference on February 11, 2026.

The Landlord and the first and second named Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. As explained below, the Landlord has proven on a balance of probabilities the grounds for termination of the tenancy and the claim for compensation in the application. However, the tenancy shall continue subject to terms and conditions set out below.
2. The Landlord served a notice of termination under section 58(1). This section sets out the following

58(1) A landlord may give a tenant a notice of termination of their tenancy of any of the following grounds:

- The tenant has persistently failed to pay rent on the date it becomes due and payable.
3. The Tenant was in possession of the rental unit on the date the application was filed.
 4. The rent is due on the first of each month and this is a month-to-month tenancy.
 5. On January 3, 2026, the Landlord gave the Tenant an N8 notice of termination with a termination date of March 31, 2026.
 6. The notice of termination contains that for the period from January 1, 2025, to January 1, 2026, the Tenant paid the rent late 8 out of 13 months. This is supported by the Landlord's accounting ledger providing specific payment information and payment dates over this period.
 7. The Tenant did not contest the contents of the N8 notice of termination and agreed that the rent had been paid late during this time.
 8. I find that the Tenant has persistently failed to pay their rent on the date that it is due.

Relief From Eviction

9. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to grant relief from eviction subject to the conditions set out in this order pursuant to subsection 83(1)(a) and 204(1) of the Act.
10. The Landlord is seeking termination of the tenancy and submits that despite service of the N8 notice of termination. The Tenant has continued to not pay rent on the date it is due. Since the notice of termination was given the Tenant has made the following payments with respect to their monthly rent.
 - January 1, 2026, rent paid on January 7, 2026;
 - February 1, 2026, rent paid on February 1, 2026.
11. The Landlord submits that they require the prompt payment of rent to manage the finances of the rental unit.
12. The Tenant explained why the rent payments have been late. The Tenant submits that they were not working last year and struggling to make the rent payments. The Tenant submits that they were in communication with the Landlord throughout about the late payment of rent. The Tenant submits that they are aware of their obligations and responsibilities as it relates to the rental unit and prompt rental payments.
13. The Tenant submits a change in circumstance, which now allows them to make rent payments in full and on time. Overall, I find that there has been a change in the Tenant's financial circumstances, which is supported by their submissions that rent has been paid in full and on time since being served the N8 notice of termination.
14. Given the circumstances, I am satisfied that it is likely a pay on time order will correct the behaviour of the Tenant.

15. Eviction is a remedy of last resort. The prejudice to the Landlord is minimal and the concerns raised to the timeliness of rent payments can adequately be addressed through a pay on time order.
16. Given the date of this order, the Tenant will be permitted to pay the lawful monthly rent for March 2026 in full on or before March 17, 2026. This will allow the Tenant time to sort out their finances.
17. This order contains all of the reasons within it and no further reasons shall be issued.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant continues if the Tenant meets the conditions set out below.
2. If Tenant has not done so already, the Tenant shall pay their lawful monthly rent for March 2026 in full on or before March 17, 2026.
3. Commencing April 1, 2026, and continuing up to and including March 1, 2027, the Tenant shall pay their lawful monthly rent, in full and on or before the first day of each month.
4. If the Tenant fails to comply with the conditions set out in paragraph 2 and 3 of this order, the Landlord may apply under section 78 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act') for an order terminating the tenancy and evicting the Tenant. The Landlord must make the application within 30 days of a breach of a condition. This application is made to the LTB without notice to the Tenant.
