

Order under Section 69
Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

File Number: LTB-L-101855-25

In the matter of: 609, 381 EDINBURGH RD S
GUELPH ON N1G3J7

Between: Southwood Apartments Limited Landlord

And

James Cameron Tenant

Southwood Apartments Limited (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict James Cameron (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on March 4, 2026.

The Landlord's Legal Representative, Faith McGregor and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $2,447.65. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $80.47. This amount is calculated as follows: $2,447.65 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $646.95 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to March 31, 2026 are $13,388.00.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.

8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $2,230.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $63.83 is owing to the Tenant for the period from January 1, 2025 to March 4, 2026.
10. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until March 31, 2026 pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act.
11. The Tenant seeks an order granting a postponement of eviction for 120 days as he submits that he expects to be able to pay the arrears using the returns from his stock investments. The Landlord opposes the Tenant's request for relief.
12. The Tenant testified that his primary source of income is OAS and CPP in the amount of approximately $2,500.00 per month. The Tenant testified that he currently has money invested in stocks which he will be able to divest and use to pay the rent. However, the Tenant's ability to pay is largely speculative and given the large amount of the arrears and the Tenant's payment history, I do not believe it would be fair in the circumstances to grant relief from eviction in the form of a payment plan, nor do I believe it would be fair to the Landlord to postpone eviction for 120 days as the Tenant requests. However, as the Tenant has a last month's rent deposit, I find that it would not be unfair in the circumstances to postpone eviction to March 31, 2026 to allow the Tenant some additional time to vacate the rental unit as there will be no further prejudice to the Landlord caused by the delay.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
  - $13,574.00 if the payment is made on or before March 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after March 31, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before March 31, 2026.
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $9,154.40. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $80.47 per day for the use of the unit starting March 5, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before March 31, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from April 1, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before March 31, 2026, then starting April 1, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after April 1, 2026.
