

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

File Number: LTB-L-107176-25

In the matter of: 206, 66 KING ST W
OSHAWA ON L1H 1A6

Between: Khanna Holdings Inc. Landlord

and

Brandon Carlaw Tenant

Khanna Holdings Inc. (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Brandon Carlaw (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on March 4, 2026.

The Landlord's agent, Sara Cowan, and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the notice or before the day the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,127.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. The Tenant has paid $500.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
5. It is not in dispute that the rent arrears owing to March 31, 2026, are $4,007.00.
6. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs. Accordingly, the total amount the Tenant owes the Landlord is $4,193.00.

Relief from Eviction

7. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to grant relief from eviction subject to the conditions set out in this order pursuant to subsection 83(1)(a) and 204(1) of the Act.
8. The Tenant testified regarding his income and expenses. The Tenant sought to preserve his tenancy and expressed his willingness to enter into a payment plan for $500.00 a month.
9. The Landlord requested an eviction order for termination and eviction with 11 days for the Tenant to pay off all outstanding amounts and void the order. The Landlord objected to a payment plan. It is the Landlord's position that the tenancy is not viable, and that further delay would cause financial prejudice to the Landlord.
10. While the Landlord objected to a payment plan and submits that the tenancy is no longer viable, I find that it would not be unfair to grant relief from eviction. Although the Tenant did not file any documentary evidence regarding his monthly income and expenses, I found the Tenant's testimony to be credible. I am satisfied that the Tenant is able to make payments towards the arrears while continuing to pay the ongoing rent.
11. The payment plan also provides the Landlord with a clear schedule for repayment and an enforcement order in the event of a default. Having considered all the circumstances, I find that relief from eviction is appropriate in the circumstance.

It is ordered that:

1. The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $4,193.00 for arrears of rent up to March 31, 2026, which includes the $186.00 filing fee, in accordance with the following schedule:
 - $500.00 on or before April 1, 2026;
 - $500.00 on or before May 1, 2026;
 - $500.00 on or before June 1, 2026;
 - $500.00 on or before July 1, 2026;
 - $500.00 on or before August 1, 2026;
 - $500.00 on or before September 1, 2026;
 - $500.00 on or before October 1, 2026;
 - $500.00 on or before November 1, 2026; and
 - $193.00 on or before December 1, 2026.

1. The Tenant shall also pay to the Landlord new rent on time and in full as it comes due and owing for the period April 1, 2026 to December 31, 2026, or until the arrears are paid in full, whichever date is earliest.
2. If the Tenants fail to make any one of the payments in accordance with this order, the outstanding balance of any arrears of rent and costs to be paid by the Tenants to the Landlord pursuant to paragraph 1 of this order shall become immediately due and owing and the Landlord may, without notice to the Tenants, apply to the Board within 30 days of the Tenants' breach pursuant to section 78 of the Act for an order terminating the tenancy and evicting the Tenants and requiring that the Tenants pay any new arrears, NSF fees and related charges that became owing after March 31, 2026.
