

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: SKPM RENTS 4 v BENGOUGH, 2026 ONLTB 26976

Date: 2026-04-01

File Number: LTB-L-103215-25

In the matter of: 605, 498 QUEENS AVE
LONDON ON N6B3K9

Between: SKPM RENTS 4 Landlord

And

Jamie Bengough Tenant

SKPM RENTS 4 (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Jamie Bengough (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on February 19, 2026.

The Landlord's legal representative Sharon Harris and the Tenant attended the hearing. The Tenant spoke with Tenant Duty Counsel prior to the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,827.57. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $60.08. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,827.57 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $1,900.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The parties agree that the rent arrears owing to February 28, 2026 are $3,847.85.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.

8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,783.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $49.70 is owing to the Tenant for the period from January 1, 2025 to February 19, 2026.
10. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until April 20, 2026 pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act.
11. The Landlord submitted that the Tenant did not respond to letters over a period of three months requesting that they contact the Landlord to discuss payment arrangements and requested a standard eviction order.
12. The Tenant testified that they receive their income from the Ontario Disability Support Program and suffer from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. They submitted that it is not that they don't care, but that they thought until recently that they had support in place, but it did not work out. The Tenant stated that they are expecting a lump sum tax refund in April and have only very recently connected with a social worker who will help with housing stability.
13. Due to the date of this order, the Tenant has already had benefit of some delay. The Tenant has now had time to receive assistance from the social worker. If the anticipated tax refund has not yet been received, it should be very shortly. I am mindful that termination of a tenancy is a remedy of last resort, and it appears in this case that the Tenant may have viable options for preserving the tenancy. In the circumstances, I find that granting a further short delay will assist the Tenant in determining whether the tenancy is viable or to explore other options. I find that a further eight days' delay from the standard order requested by the Landlord does not rise to the level of unfairness.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust (less any amounts paid since the date of the hearing):
 - $7,688.99 if the payment is made on or before April 20, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after April 20, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before April 20, 2026.
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $1,515.10. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $60.08 per day for the use of the unit starting February 20, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before April 20, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from April 21, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before April 20, 2026, then starting April 21, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after April 21, 2026.
