

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: SHIDHR HOLDINGS INC v McCrone, 2026 ONLTB 32466

Date: 2026-04-27

File Number: LTB-L-007072-26

In the matter of: 2, 104 WELLINGTON ST E
AURORA ON L4G1J1

Between: SHIDHR HOLDINGS INC Landlord

And

Jessika Anne McCrone Tenant

SHIDHR HOLDINGS INC (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Jessika Anne McCrone (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on March 31, 2026 at 3:54 p.m; stood down at 4:04 p.m. and restarted at 4:29 p.m.

The Landlords Ghansham Vania and Davinder Vania and the Tenant Jessika McCrone attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $2,000.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $65.75. This amount is calculated as follows: $2,000.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $1,900.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to March 31, 2026 are $5,950.00.

7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord testified the rent deposit was $1,000.00 while the Tenant claimed the deposit was $2,000.00. In this case, neither party provided documentary evidence to support their respective positions regarding the amount of the last month's rent deposit. With respect to the Landlord's evidence, the application filed with the Board indicates that the last month's rent deposit was $2,000.00.
9. I prefer and place greater weight on documentary evidence rather than what was a late-arising oral assertion that was completely unsupported by documentation by the Landlord that the deposit was reduced.
10. On the balance of probabilities, I find it more likely than not that the amount of the last month's rent deposit collected at the start of the tenancy was $2,000.00, as reflected in the Landlord's application. I also do not find sufficient evidence to support the Landlord's claim that any portion of this deposit was reduced.
11. I find the Landlord collected a rent deposit of $2,000.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
12. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $24.28 is owing to the Tenant for the period from September 2, 2025 to March 31, 2026.

Relief from eviction

13. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until May 31, 2026 pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act.
14. The Tenant testified that in November 2025 as a result of a health condition, she was unable to work, and therefore the Tenant's income was limited; although as her condition improved, she has worked in a temporary role and has recently been hired as a full-time basis moving forward. The Tenant further testified that finding a new unit that is both affordable and suitable in the community would be challenging given the current rental market conditions. For these reasons, the Tenant requested a payment plan beginning at $1,500.00 month one, and $1,000.00 per month ongoing, until the arrears are paid in full, or should an eviction be granted, the Board delay the eviction.
15. The Landlord submitted that any payment plan was inappropriate, as since the application the Tenant has made limited payments despite the Tenant's own testimony that she earned an income in February 2025. The Landlord further submitted that any delay would only further prejudice the Landlord as the arrears were significant.
16. After considering all the circumstances, I find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until May 31, 2026. While the Tenant provided testimony that their income from their new job exceeded their monthly expenses, the Tenant provided no documentary evidence to support this testimony. While I am not persuaded the Tenant would be able to commit to a payment plan, I find the delay will afford the Tenant with additional time to complete a housing search for an affordable and suitable unit in the community, in particular for her 3 school aged children, which is appropriate given the Tenant's circumstances, without significantly prejudicing the Landlord.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $8,136.00 if the payment is made on or before April 30, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

- $10,136.00 if the payment is made on or before May 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after May 31, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
 4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before May 31, 2026.
 5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $4,111.72. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
 6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $65.75 per day for the use of the unit starting April 1, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
 7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before May 31, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from June 1, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
 8. If the unit is not vacated on or before May 31, 2026, then starting June 1, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
 9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after June 1, 2026.
