

Order under Section 69
Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

File Number: LTB-L-014143-26

In the matter of: 156 Winters Way
SHELBURNE ON L9V2X7

Between: ANOUSHKA AURORA Landlord

And

Chantel Richards Tenant

ANOUSHKA AURORA (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Chantel Richards (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on April 22, 2026.

The Landlord and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $2,690.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $88.44. This amount is calculated as follows: $2,690.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $1,000.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to April 30, 2026 are $18,500.00.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $2,690.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.

9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $50.45 is owing to the Tenant for the period from June 1, 2025 to April 22, 2026.

Relief from eviction

10. The Tenant testified that she lost her job in the early part of the year and is starting a new job on April 30, 2026. She testified that she was receiving child tax credit during that time. She lives in the unit with her teenage children.
11. The Tenant proposed a payment plan that would see the arrears paid of in about a year and a half. The Tenant testified that she could make a payment on April 29, 2026, of $4,000.00. She testified that this would be coming from her savings. After that payment, the Tenant proposed to pay $1,000.00 a month until the arrears are paid in full. The Tenant testified to her monthly expenses and her projected monthly income when she starts working again.
12. The Landlord requested a standard order.
13. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until May 31, 2026 pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act. I am not satisfied that the payment plan proposed by the Tenant was reasonable. It is clear from the Tenant's testimony with respect to her finances that the payment plan is not affordable. The Tenants monthly expenses, including rent total $5,149.00. The Tenant's projected monthly income is approximately $4,900.00. There is a deficit every month of about $250.00. It does not appear that there is any room for the suggested payment of $1,000.00 towards the arrears every month. I am not satisfied with the Tenant's explanation that the shortfall will come from family. The Tenant did not call the proposed family member to testify to their acceptance of providing financial assistance to the Tenant or their ability to. It would be unfair to the Landlord to grant a payment plan that will most likely fail as the Tenant's own income does not even support her rent and expenses. I find a short delay in termination is fair in the circumstances.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $18,686.00 if the payment is made on or before April 30, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $21,376.00 if the payment is made on or before May 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after May 31, 2026 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before May 31, 2026.
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $15,201.23. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $88.44 per day for the use of the unit starting April 23, 2026 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before May 31, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from June 1, 2026 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before May 31, 2026, then starting June 1, 2026, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after June 1, 2026.
