

Order under Section 69
Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

File Number: LTB-L-018124-26

In the matter of: 920, 241 SIMCOE ST
LONDON ON N6B3L4

Between: London and Middlesex Community Housing Landlord

And

Marc Muma Tenant

London and Middlesex Community Housing (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Marc Muma (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on May 11, 2026.

Only the Landlord's representative Sheiba Sadat attended the hearing.

The Tenant was not present or represented at the hearing although properly served with notice of this hearing by the LTB. There was no record of a request to adjourn the hearing. As a result, the hearing proceeded with only the Landlord's evidence.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the notice or before the day the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $791.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. The Tenant has paid $2,029.38 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
5. The rent arrears owing to May 31, 2026 are $1,969.21.

6. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
7. Accordingly, the total amount the Tenant owes the Landlord is $2,155.21.
8. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to grant relief from eviction subject to the conditions set out in this order pursuant to subsection 83(1)(a) and 204(1) of the Act.
9. The Landlord was unaware of any circumstances that would delay or deny eviction but sought a payment plan to allow the Tenant to preserve the tenancy. I find the payment plan to be more beneficial to the Tenant than an order with a termination date, therefore it is the most appropriate order in the circumstances.

It is ordered that:

1. The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $2,155.21 for arrears of rent up to May 31, 2026 and costs.
2. The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the amount set out in paragraph 1 in accordance with the following schedule:
 - The amount of $217.00 beginning June 1, 2026, and on the first of every month up to (and including) February 1, 2027; and
 - $202.21 on or before March 1, 2027.
3. The Tenant shall also pay to the Landlord new rent on time and in full as it comes due and owing for the period June 2026 to March 2027, or until the arrears are paid in full, whichever date is earliest.
4. If the Tenant fails to make any one of the payments in accordance with this order, the outstanding balance of any arrears of rent and costs to be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord pursuant to paragraph 1 of this order shall become immediately due and owing and the Landlord may, without notice to the Tenant, apply to the LTB within 30 days of the Tenant's breach pursuant to section 78 of the Act for an order terminating the tenancy and evicting the Tenant and requiring that the Tenant pay any new arrears, NSF fees and related charges that became owing after May 31, 2026.
