

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Kapoor v Chopra, 2026 ONLTB 48376

Date: 2026-06-25

File Number: LTB-L-030937-26

In the matter of: Main Floor, 134 CALM WATERS CRES
BRAMPTON ON L6V4S2

Between: Pankaj Kapoor
Premlata Premlata
Landlords

And

Anshu Chopra
Tenant

Pankaj Kapoor and Premlata Premlata (the 'Landlords') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Anshu Chopra (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on June 15, 2026.

The Landlords, the Landlords' Legal Representative, Nivetha Vijayakanthan and the Tenant attended the hearing. The Tenant spoke to Tenant Duty Counsel prior to the start of the proceeding.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $2,600.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $85.48. This amount is calculated as follows: $2,600.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to June 30, 2026 are $13,100.00.

7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $2,600.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $112.87 is owing to the Tenant for the period from July 31, 2024 to June 15, 2026.
10. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until August 31, 2026, pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act. This extension of time accounts for both parties' evidence in relation to their financial circumstances.
11. The Landlords' Legal Representative submitted that the parties have attempted to work out a payment plan to no avail, since the application was filed. The Tenant's evidence in relation to entering a payment plan illustrated that a payment plan would not be viable given the Tenant's current life circumstances, employment status, income sources and monthly expenses. The Tenant would have difficulty covering the monthly rent, her other expenses, let alone the arrears.
12. The Tenant testified to the impact an eviction would have on her and her children, explaining that they are a single income family, and her children (14 and 12 years of age), attend school in the local area, and have significant connection to their schools, their neighbours, and the community and thus the Tenant requested and extended eviction of three to six months, as she also was dealing with a family law matter. The Tenant also testified to the financial challenges looking for a new home would bring given that they are effectively a single income family, who know is on assistance, as the children's father has not provided financial support, to date, as she was under the impression he was paying the Landlords rent, which he obviously has not done so, since the parties marital dissolution.
13. In response to questioning from the Board, the Landlords' Legal Representative explained that any further delay in granting the application would be financial prejudicial to the Landlords, and that the Landlords rely on rent to pay expenses related to the rental unit, and that the Landlords are small Landlords.
14. Considering all of the evidence and, notwithstanding the Landlord may face some financial prejudice, I find that, pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act that it would not be unfair to the Landlords to delay the eviction until August 31, 2026, due to the significant impact an early eviction would have on the Tenant and her children. However it would be unfair to delay the eviction any further.
15. Given the Tenant's connection to the community and schooling needs of her two children, I am satisfied that they may experience challenges securing housing that fits their needs such that more time is required. By contrast, the Landlords, while I acknowledge may face further financial prejudice, the Landlords are holding the last month's rent deposit and after considering the totality of the circumstances I conclude that delaying eviction to August 31, 2026, is fair and appropriate.

16. The extension of time will provide the Tenant time to secure her future income sources/funds to pay the arrears or to find a new place to live for herself and her children.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlords and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlords or to the LTB in trust:
 - $13,286.00 if the payment is made on or before June 30, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $15,886.00 if the payment is made on or before July 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $18,486.00 if the payment is made on or before August 31, 2026. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after August 31, 2026, but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before August 31, 2026.
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $9,255.33. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlords owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlords compensation of $85.48 per day for the use of the unit starting June 16, 2026, until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlords the full amount owing on or before August 31, 2026, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from September 1, 2026, at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.

8. If the unit is not vacated on or before August 31, 2026, then starting September 1, 2026, the Landlords may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlords on or after September 1, 2026.
